Autumn Brilliance Attracts Hundreds To Bethel Area

The fall foliage show in and around Bethel over the Columbus Day weekend was "standing room only," Area innkeepers reported. Filling all available rooms and turning away tourists by the score.

"I've never seen so many people in town," said Wendie Gray, of the Sunday River Skiway.

Bill Riley, of the Pine-Sider Lodge in Bryant Pond, was not planning to stay around for the weekend, but was called back by the crush of tourists. "We wound up with 15 people who were searching for rooms," he recalled.

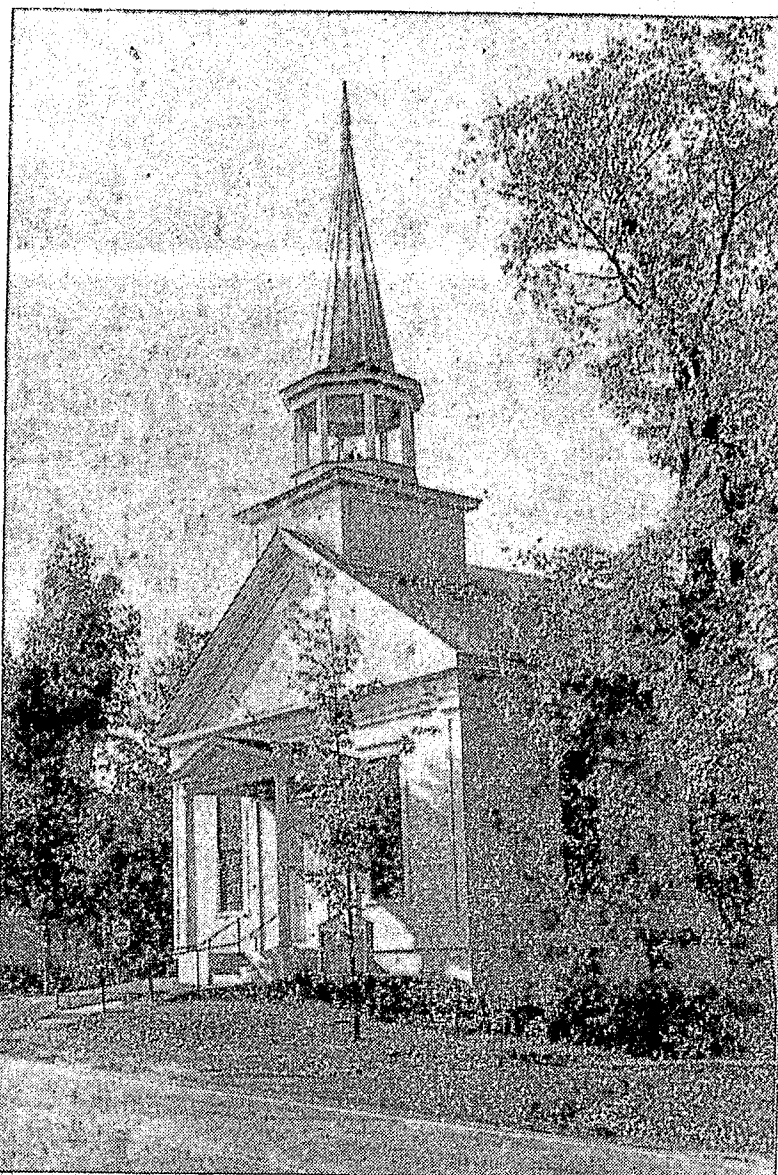

Probably some of those people had already been turned away at Chapman's Inn, which reported turning away about 40 leaf-peepers.

Steve Wight, of the Sunday River Inn in Newry noted, "This is always a busy weekend. It's the one time when everyone wants to come to Bethel. People's image of New England is the fall."

Many, as usual, came from quite far away to see a pretty New England town in the fall. The Bethel Inn had an entire busload from California, and another busload from Wyoming.

"We were right up to our eyeballs," said the Inn's front desk manager Don Bennett. "We could have sold the Bethel Inn's rooms twice." The Inn's 59 rooms had 115 people each night. The Fryeburg Fair added to the crowds in the area, in addition to the autumn leaves, he said. Guests at the Bethel Inn visited the Rangeley Lakes, Grafton Notch, Mt. Washington, Songo Pond, in addition to a walking tour of Bethel and a visit to the Moses Mason House.

"The foliage attracts them," commented Mr. Bennett, "but (in terms of what they say) they talk about the village, the air, the food at the Inn. Eating is a large part of their activities."

Walking around in the autumn air must have produced some hearty appetites, because Edelweiss proprietor Dick Waterhouse reported his store was packed all weekend, with people loading up on snacks.

"LADY LIBERTY" PROJECT

AT CRESCENT PARK SCHOOL

Beginning on Friday, Oct. 19, students at Crescent Park School will begin a school year project of collecting money to send to the Statue of Liberty Restoration Project in New York City. The CPS project will be directed by third graders who will collect the money and do the record keeping.

Initiated for students as a means of displaying patriotism and pride in our country, the "Lady Liberty" Project will hold collections each Friday. Students are encouraged to save the money cashed in from bottles and cans and bring it to school on Friday. Students should not bring bottles or cans to school but cash them in beforehand. The collection drive will end on Flag Day, June 14, 1985.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MET TUESDAY

Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday at the home of secretary Wendie Gray. The October newsletter was sent to members reviewing the past three months' project. Both Down East and the AAA Motorist featuring Bethel are on the newsstand and the Chamber can expect inquiries beginning this week. Questions were formulated for the political forum Tuesday evening. The town office received a letter from the State Development Office concerning industrial site development. The Chamber voted to spearhead a development trade mission to Augusta and to have a meeting with the Bethel Area Development Corporation. Town officials and interested parties for the purpose of collecting information, developing plans and strategies to present to the State Development office. Mac MacMunn reviewed progress on the coupon book and Bill Riley reviewed action taken for a booth at the Boston Ski Show. The Oct. 16 meeting will be held at 7:30 a.m. at Maine Line Products on Main Street.

FROM THE bethel town office

Absentee ballots are available for the election of Tuesday, Nov. 6. Those residents that will not be in town on that day should stop by the town office to complete an absentee ballot. Arrangements can be made for voting absentee at home (for those who qualify) by calling the town office (824-2669).

While sample ballots have not yet been received, citizens are reminded that in addition to the national ballot, there will be state and regional questions, involving a contested representative's seat for this district in the State Legislature. Sample ballots will be posted when received, at the Bethel Town Office, at Mountain View Store in West Bethel, and at the East Bethel Grange Hall.

Tax bills for the municipal accounting year July 1, 1984, through June 30, 1985, were mailed last Friday. Pursuant to the special town meeting vote of Nov. 1, 1983, taxpayers have the option of paying fiscal year 1985 tax bills in two equal installments. Figures on the tax bill show the total tax for the 12-month period as well as the two installments that are due. The first installment is due by Nov. 15, 1984, and the second installment by April 15, 1985 (reminders for this latter period will be mailed next year).

Hunting and fishing licenses for 1985 are available at the town office at 1984 prices. The prices will remain effective through Nov. 30, 1984.

(The Board of Selectmen will meet in regular session Monday Oct. 15 at 7 p. m. in the town office meeting room.

Legislative Candidates Air Views at Well-Attended Public Forum Tuesday

Republican Alvin Barth and Democrat Jeff Mills found more to agree on than to disagree on during Tuesday night's political forum sponsored by the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce.

Both agreed, for example, on the need for increased attention to District business interests. But Mr. Barth, GOP challenger for the re-districted state house seat, was of the opinion that the business climate in the state had been chilled by the Democratic administration and could only be warmed up by more Republicans in state government. "People in District 49 don't want high workers' comp," he said, "and they don't want to have to pay an additional 6% (tax) on cigarettes (as a result of the $2,000 bonus for teachers)."

"(The district) is unified by its basic industries — tourism and wood—and they're not being helped by Augusta. It's time for a change."

Both agreed on the need for road improvements, particularly to Route 26, and both agreed that the area would benefit from new, non-polluting industries.

But Rep. Mills said the key to getting added state interest in bringing business to the Bethel area was by having local business leaders go to Augusta to lobby lawmakers and invite administrators to visit here. Mr. Barth, on the other hand, said that the state's policies on wages and taxes deterred businessmen from wanting to invest in the state at all.

Mr. Mills argued that the question of business climate was not simply a question of state policies. "No matter what you do (on labor and taxes) we'll always have a problem with weather and distance from markets," he said, and this puts a damper on investment. Nevertheless, he said, a recent study by the administration indicates a business growth rate of 17% over the coming decade.

Mr. Barth, on the other hand, cited statistics as well, showing Maine ranked 45th among the 50 states in the intangible called "business climate." "The problem is the governor and his advisors," he said. "They're just not interested."

Asking a question from the audience, local inn owner "Mac" MacMunn noted that Maine spends less per capita on tourism promotion than other states.

Directors' Meeting

At its meeting on Monday evening of this week held at the Woodstock Elementary School the Board of Directors of S.A.D. 44 voted to notify Bethel's Board of Selectmen that it is the director's intention not to renew the lease with the Town of Bethel that permits the garaging of ambulances at the S.A.D. 44 Maintenance Garage. Under the terms of the current lease, which expires on June 30, 1985, classroom space at the garage has also been available for the teaching of first aid and related courses by the B.E.A.R.S. A "desperate need" of the space for S.A.D. 44 storage was cited as a reason for non-renewal.

Natalie Timmerlake of Bethel was approved as Coordinator of Pupil Personnel Services through June of 1985. Mrs. Timmerlake has been affiliated with S.A.D. 44 since 1967 when she taught grades 5-6-7 at Locke Mills. From 1968 to 1977 she was Title I reading teacher at the Woodstock/Locke Mills Elementary Schools; 1977-79, itinerant resource teacher for three schools, K-5; 1978-79, resource room teacher for two Bethel schools, K-5, and from 1979 to date, resource teacher.

Upton

— Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres. —

Laurie drove to Portland Monday to take her sister, Kathy Williford, to the jetport. Kathy and sons flew back to their home in Grand Forks Air Force Base.

Thursday night the Upton school board met with Supt. Craig at the school house. Regular business was discussed.

Upton woke up to an early snow storm Wednesday, Oct. 2. Several inches had fallen during the night and was very beautiful on the mountain sides still colored by the leaves.

Lots of people took advantage of the three day holiday and vacationed in Upton.

The Yarnells hosted a meeting for political candidate Jeff Mills last week.

The rest of the East B Hill or Andover Road has been tarred recently making the entire 14 miles a tarred road.

West Bethel

Guests this past weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Haines were their daughters, Em-sign and Mrs. Joseph Erskine of Portsmouth, R. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Deegan of Bethel, also Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Martin and family of Salem, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cummings went to the Fryeburg Fair in the rain on Tuesday. Only stayed a short time, but colors were lovely even in the rain.

Tuesday evening Cathryn Lovejoy was trying out for the community band in Bethel on her trombone, along with her daughter, Ellen Whitney.

Fannie and Alanson Cummings were at the garage again on Wednesday, in Norway. They lunched with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Strother and visited Mrs. Evelyn Griffith at the hospital. She had a bad fall, injuring her back. They went to Lewiston on Saturday for a set of new tires, new shocks, and a wheel alignment. Cathryn Lovejoy went along to drive home after a shopping tour in nearby stores.

John Howe of Southwest Harbor and his daughter, Olive Risko of New York, were callers at A. Cummings on Saturday. The Lovejoys all went to the fair Saturday.

Mrs. Maxine Lovejoy spent Saturday night with her sister, Marjorie Fuller, in South Paris. They were celebrating a birthday.

Miss Rebecca West of Rumford had a nice visit with her Grammie Cummings, Monday evening, while the rest of the family were at the Lovejoys. She enjoyed the warm homemade applesauce.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

I like to watch, when night begins to wrap up a diamond-day in black velvet. It is doing that now, as I write. The sunset is fading, a lovely pink suffuses the water and the surrounding hills, dimming the colored foliage. It is a magic moment, as I see the mountains blush, and it's always a delight.

This has been a good day, a good day to remember; heavenly clear and warm. The ponds were still and glassy, the air crisp.

Right after lunch we went for a ride over Rowe Hill. We stopped by a road that went through a stand of pine, so my walking path was a carpet of pine needles.

I heard so many chipmunks that I thought I must be in Chipmunk Forest. I stopped several times to watch them, as they crossed my path or peeked from behind a bush.

Cricket fiddled by the roadside as I looked up to the feathered plumes of the pines. The forest was dark, remote, but beautiful. A tree of red or yellow burst in to flame every now and then.

I had been on this road several times years ago. It was lonely to day, as I went on alone.

When I reached the ledge, my intended destination, I looked for familiar things. The first things were not familiar, but unsightly and disagreeable; burned sticks, crushed cans, paper and boxes. The stone bench which I once admired had been broken down on one side. I turned away and moved toward the right for something of nature, not man. I looked down and over the tree tops to Indian Pond. It nestled blue-blue complete and brilliant while the colored leaves, sharp and clear, made a spot of glory.

I crossed the dyke in the rock to get a better view. If I remember my earth science, this dyke or body of rock was formed while in molten state, as it flowed into a crevasse and hardened across it. It was very different from the rock around it.

I looked down on clusters of brilliant red maple leaves like bits of forest fire bursting out on its branches.

I walked around and took some pictures; all the time recalling old memories. I felt the sadness and joy of the forest, also its endless inspiration.

With a final look at the tree-tops, hills, and pond, I again crossed the dyke and climbed the ledge to the top. The trail bent toward the woods, plunging it from sunshine into darkness. The trees were so tall and the foliage so interlaced that the sky at times disappeared except for the thin crack of light directly overhead. The forest seemed to press into the road. So quiet—except the hum of crickets and the chatter of chipmunks. A solitary bluejay added its voice from the top of a pine. Bees still buzzed over fading

Everyone should be able to go out on to the hills on such days and know that life is good. At least we should feel the strength and hospitality of the natural world. It gives us much when we stand and look at the horizon; for there is faith, and the mountains give strength.

Back at the car, we drove home. But I still see in my mind the panorama of hills and woodlands and the crystal clear lake, a diamond reflecting its wild beauty on the scene.

Mr. and Mrs. David Holt and daughter, Mary, of Dexter, came to visit his parents, her parents and us over the week end. Ann of Bethel also came home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis went with their son, Albert and wife, Marie to the Fryeburg Fair on Monday. On Saturday they attended again with Kathy Curtis and Eva Felton, Walter Curtis, Farmington, visited his father and mother, Fred and Rena, on Tuesday.

Frank and Dorothy Curtis had as callers: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skinner, Frossos, Tex., Mrs. Mabel Blaha, Sanbenito, Tex.; Ralph Leeper, Westport.

On Sunday Leslie Merrill of Sutton, Mass., visited Irene, Leslie, a 'phone boy' for the Holt family, who lived next door to Irene at what was later the Croteau place, and Irene were schoolmates in the Irish Neighborhood school.

Monday, Maude was at Gerald Harrington's, Sunday River, to celebrate Bradley's birthday. On Thursday she was at Ralph's for supper. It was Gerald's and Ramsey's birthday and Gerald and Linda's anniversary.

Visitors at Joe and Muriel Gilbert's this week have been: Irene and Lew Charest and Lil Lauze, Lewiston, Jean Wade, Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Whitney, Westbrook.

On my way to work Monday I had to stop for a moose just beyond Stuart Cross' and wait several minutes for her to leave for the low ground down in back.

Brian and I went shopping in Gorham Saturday. Mt. Washington's snow covered peak was a beautiful background for the fall foliage. Photographers were stopped all along the route.

My Tuesday, Oct. 9, by taking a foliage ride and then having supper at a local restaurant. After supper they went to West Greenwood to give birthday greetings to their nephew, Brian Colby, who was 13 the same day.

Sent in by Viva Whitman:

From the looks of things around here and other places we have traveled lately, Old Jack Frost has been paying lots of people a visit. Our flower garden, which was so pretty a few days ago, doesn't look very pretty any more. However, the leaves around are beautiful as usual at this time of year and I never cease to wonder at the way the seasons have been planned. They are all beautiful in their own ways.

Things are still humming around here from all the work being done. Also the trips to the doctors, which interfere with our progress on the building Russell is putting up at the front of the trailer.

Had an appointment with a doctor in Harrison last Monday and didn't have any idea how long it would take or what would take place. He is an ear, nose and throat man and also knows about allergies, which I have plenty of. My head feels some better.

Lawrence and Grace were busy sawing wood in the afternoon and Russell was busy outside as usual. After supper, he and I went out and picked another bunch of cucumbers for pickles. I hated to see them all go to waste. Russell isn't supposed to have salt too much, so I made these without salt and they are very good. Did that on Tuesday. As it was raining and one couldn't do much outside, Russell helped me put the pickles in jars after they were done.

We then got ready to go to North Bridgton where I had an appointment with my regular doctor. Didn't accomplish too much that day, but Wednesday was a busy day. Russell got busy on the steps and got them so we could go out the front door; we got ready and went to our cousin's funeral, which wasn't a pleasure, but we always like to pay our respects and hope it will be returned when our day comes. We were invited to a lunch at the deceased's home after the funeral, but as Russell wants to get this building done as fast as he can, we didn't go. He hadn't worked very long when it started to rain, so we might as well have gone to the lunch. As it was, we decided later in the afternoon to go visit other relatives whom we seldom see. Margaret Oman's daughter Martha and husband, with little girl Heather were down, and I had wanted to see them when they came this time, so Russell and I went down to visit for a short time. They live in St. Agatha, which is way up in the northern part of Maine and won't get down again until Christmas, so was glad to see them, if only for a little while. Heather is about three months younger than Courtney, whom you have heard me mention so much about, and Nonie and Martha have been such good friends since childhood, that we like to see the little ones to see how they have changed, and changed they have.

How cold it was Thursday morning! I know as I went out to help Russell get the plywood up for the roof, I had to bundle up good to keep warm, and with each of us on a ladder and pushing one end of a sheet of plywood, we finally got two whole sheets of it up there, and then Russell did the rest of the carrying by himself. When he was ready for the aluminum roofing, I went out and helped in any way I could. He was so lame when it came night that it was hard for him to walk. Good old arthritis gets all of us that he can, and if it isn't him, it is one of his kin.

Grace came down for a few minutes to see how Russell was doing and thought he was doing O.K.

Friday morning was cold too. Russell didn't like the plywood he had gotten for the siding of the building he was working on, so we loaded it into the truck and he took it back and swapped for something that we can paint and have look somewhere decent. We don't plan to leave the plywood without paint as that is one of the woods that contain formaldehyde, and we've had enough of that. He went with his truck and I went with my car as I had appointments to keep and didn't want him to wait around for me. I did the wash and kept my appointments, he swapped the lumber and got the groceries and had lunch started when I got home. After lunch he worked outside until it was time to go to Harrison for me to get a back treatment.

Had planned to go to Augusta on Saturday to Lecturers' Conference so got to bed in good time Friday night. We left on Saturday morning about 7 o'clock and went to Rumford Point where we met two ladies, Althea Tucker and Marion Easter, who were going with us. No one could have asked for a more perfect day. It was chilly, but sunny, and the scenery was just a gorgeous picture. Marion said the autumn colors reminded her of a boiled dinner, with all the reds, oranges, light greens, and different colors. It certainly was a good ride and we made it without any trouble. Had a busy day doing lots of things and learning new things about programs for the Grange. The Secretaries met in a room above us and got through at lunch time, but we didn't get through until about 2:30 or 2:45. We got started for home and saw just as pretty scenery as we did going down in the morning. It was just one of those lovely fall days that one can enjoy.

Lots going on today as Peggy is down to her camp and Myrna and Bernard are working on it to make it better than it now is. Russell is working on our front addition, Lawrence has been hauling wood and I expect Pat has been at their new home working. I stayed in and got lunch for Peggy's folks and Russell, so we have all been doing our part to make it a busy day. I expect everyone will be tired tonight when all is through for the day.

Peggy is delighted to have her camps all set up and a few changes being made to make them even better. We took pictures of the moving of them at this end and it shows her a little of what went on. Haven't got all the pictures back yet, but what have come are good for her to put in an album for a keepsake. It was a job to move the camps, but now that it is over, we can all rest easy and know that it was job well done.

NOTES FROMEvans Notch*White Mountain National Forest

On Sept. 30, fiscal year 1984 came to an end for the Evans Notch Ranger District of the White Mountain National Forest, and it is time to highlight accomplishments for the owners of the National Forest, the American citizens.

In recreation management, use was up slightly at the 18 District areas (backcountry shelters, special uses, campgrounds, picnic areas, overlooks). Day use was up 10%. Over 175 miles of hiking trails were maintained with 10 miles receiving major rehabilitation. The 30-mile snowmobile network was reopened with final signing to be completed early this winter by the State of Maine. Trail work was accomplished by cooperators (Appalachian Mountain Club, Chatham Trails Association), State of Maine—Bureau of Parks and Recreation—Snowmobile Division, volunteers, Youth Conservation Corps, contractors, and district personnel. Opportunities for use of recreation areas by disabled citizens were highlighted in the June issue of Coping magazine.

On Aug. 13, the 40th birthday of Smokey Bear was observed. A free publication commemorating his birthday is available at the district office. Ask for publication, "Remember—Only you..." The colorful publication contains pictures of all the fire prevention posters used from 1939-1984. In other fire news, district personnel were sent to Minnesota in June to help with fire suppression efforts and also cooperated with the Stoneham Fire Department and the State of Maine in suppressing a one-acre fire on Albany Mountain this fall. District personnel also responded to two other emergencies involving a missing 10-year-old boy and a hiker who had become separated from her party. Both missions had a happy ending.

In timber management, salvage sale harvesting operations are nearing completion with only 15 sales active. Following the December, 1980 windstorm, approximately 100 salvage sales were prepared, and 55 million board feet were harvested. The 15 remaining sales are scheduled for final erosion control activities this fall and next spring. This work includes placement of water bars, lime, fertilizer, and a seed mixture suited for the site and designed to provide food and cover for wildlife. In other timber management activities, 10,000 acres were examined for resource needs; 655 acres were reforested; and timber stand improvement occurred on 354 acres.

In wildlife management, 142 acres were improved specifically for wildlife. The activities ranged from wildlife openings and nesting box maintenance to planting of apple trees in select openings. The U. S. Forest Service manages the habitat while the States of Maine and New Hampshire manage the species populations.

In road management, 40 miles of forest roads were maintained. The Town of Bethel, State of Maine, and Forest Service cooperated on rebuilding a bridge on the Flat Road in West Bethel this fall.

Finally, following the public involvement effort associated with the Caribou - Speckled Roadless Area, the draft Forest Plan was completed and transmitted for printing. The draft plan is due out this fall. As opportunities for public involvement in the management of the Evans Notch Ranger District and the White Mountain National Forest become available, citizens will be asked to participate in the management of their National Forest.

JACKSON-SILVER POST & UNIT TO ENTERTAIN BOY AND GIRL STATE DELEGATES

Jackson-Silver Post and Unit No. 68, Locke Mills, will entertain Oct. 18 their Boy and Girl State delegates who went to Orono and Husson College in June, for a week to study government and Americanism. It's a big honor to be chosen by the school, to attend.

A 6:30 supper will be served followed by a program planned by music chairman Mary Lyon. This is also membership night. President Kathy Bartlett and her co-workers are working on the supper.

Special guests will be Department Girl State Director Shirley Williams of Jay and Boy State Coordinator Vito DeFillippi of Rumford. Delegate Elizabeth Waite of Mexico is invited, as she won the Lobbyist Award given by Past State President Fannie Cummings. Second District President Anita Lemay of Peru is expected to attend and our girls, Lea Ann Condit and Amy Otero-Otero and Boy Stater Alan Verrill will be at the head table. NEC Jeri Brooks, Bethel, has a standing invitation to visit Locke Mills. The parents of the young people are urged to attend.

The meeting of Oct. 4 was opened without form by 1st Vice President Cathryn Lovejoy. In the absence of Kathy Bartlett, Tyrene Lovejoy acted as secretary as Grace Smith is still ill.

Plans were completed for the supper and an "Afternoon of So-

Home made pies and coffee will be served at 12:30 p. m. followed by a variety of games. There will be nice door prizes. To make reservations phone 665-2321.

Amnistrice Day, by law, must be observed on Nov. 11. Plans are not yet complete, but the Legion boys hope to have a parade with the Telstar band participating, and a program at the hall for special presentations.

Monday, Oct. 15, the men are having one of their big game parties. Hall open at 5:30, game starting at 7 p. m. Special refreshments are in charge of Leah Deegan. Warren Smith is the organizer.

Tuesday, Oct. 16 is Oxford County Council meeting in Dixfield. Eugene Buswell, Commander, will be presiding for the men and President Carrie Childs will conduct the ladies' meeting.

BETHEL REPUBLICAN TOWN COMMITTEE MEETS

Bethel Republican Town Committee met Sunday afternoon. Plans were completed for the headquarters opening at 2 p. m., Sunday, Oct. 14. It was reported that phones are in working order for use by campaign volunteers. Assignments were given for checkers at the polls, and callers as well as drivers to transport voters.

Following the opening of headquarters there is to be a pot luck supper at the West Bethel Grange Hall for Al Barth. The supper will be at 6 p. m., Oct. 14. All voters are invited to attend and bring either a hot dish or salad.

Al Barth discussed his busy campaign schedule. Oct. 13 is the date Rangeley voters will conduct a blitz and Oct. 24 the Rangeley Inn will be the scene of an open house for Mr. Barth with hosts Ed and Faye Carpenter.

Tenagers are organizing a blitz in Bethel, Oct. 27. Material has been requested by S.A.D. 44 teenage Republicans for the upcoming mock election. Brian Lizotte and Chris Tyler will be receiving material and information for the school.

For bumper stickers and other materials Barbara D. Brown should be contacted. After Oct. 14 material will be available at headquarters.

Fund raising report was made by Chairman Leland Brown. Efforts will continue until Bethel's goal is completed.

tion than almost any other state, ranking 49th out of 50.

Rep. Mills said, "It's not just the money spent for tourism, but the money spent in our area. If a (tourism promotion) bill is passed, most of the money will go to the southern area."

Challenger Barth, a school board member, took his Democratic opponent to task for the increased costs to business as a result of the workers' compensation bill passed in 1974. He said SAD 44 spends $42,000 yearly on workers' comp costs, and said the mills figure their workers' comp costs at one cord out of every three cut. "The costs are too high. Something has to be done, and I don't see that it will be done as long as the present leadership is in Augusta."

Mr. Mills agreed that the costs involved with workers' comp were too high, but said state government was acting to reduce them by plugging loopholes. He said he would work to further close loopholes, if he is re-elected.

(The two candidates also clashed on the questions of the new minimum wage law and the new education bill, with its $2,000 bonus for teachers. "The minimum wage (increase) hurts seasonal businesses like we have here," said Mr. Barth, and this will affect the hiring of youth for part-time and summer jobs. As for the education bill, he said, "It seems a premise that money will cure problems (in ed-

SPORTS CORNER

TELSTAR REBELS

According to the Western Maine Div. C soccer rankings released yesterday, Telstar's soccer team is ranked number one and is a shoo-in for a playoff berth, probably at home. In the last set of rankings, released last month, the Rebels were also ranked number one. They finish the regular season this week, with home games against Winthrop today and Mt. Abram tomorrow.

Going into today's 3:30 game, the TRHS soccer team stood at 9-4-1 overall after polishing off Gould Academy Monday, 5-2. The game was tight through half-time, with Telstar having only a 1-0 advantage, but a few goals in rapid succession in the second half put the game on ice for Telstar. "I thought they (Gould) would give us a tough game, and the first half showed that," commented Coach Bob Remington. "(But) the three quick goals (in the second half) . . . just kinda broke them."

Gould goalie Spencer Ordway had the disadvantage of being in for the second half and facing a fired-up Rebel team. Rebel goals were by Shawn Smith (3), with two assists by Ken Whitney and one by Al Verrill; by Brandon Salway on a breakaway; and by Ken Whitney in the first half, with an assist by Stacey Roberts.

In all, Telstar outshot Gould by 22 to 8 with shots on goal. Telstar goalie Ken Viger had six saves; Gould goalies Ordway and Mike Angell had nine saves between them.

"Gould's goals were by Eric Allen, with an assist by John Mendola, and by Mendola on a penalty kick."

In last Saturday's game against Yarmouth, at home, Telstar came out on the short end of the 1-0 score, and Coach Remington said, "It should have ended in a scoreless tie."

Yarmouth's lone goal came with 4 1/2 minutes remaining in the game and was made by all-star John Connor. "He just got an open shot and that made the difference," said Remington. Telstar has yet to beat Yarmouth, but did tie them once.

Bearing out the coach's contention that the game was evenly played were the statistics. Telstar had 20 shots on goal to Yarmouth's 15, and Telstar goalie Viger had 10 saves to Yarmouth's Dave Tibbitts' 11.

The TRHS field hockey team, which last week had looked like an easy bet for the playoffs, now has only an outside chance following yesterday's game with third-ranked Jay. This week they were ranked 12th out of 15 and still have to play Yarmouth, Friday at home. Their final games are next Tuesday, against Jay.

Last Wednesday they lost 3-1 to St. Doms. "We had a lot of shots on goal," said Coach Sally Han-

GOULD HUSKIES

Gould Academy's field hockey teams, both varsity and JV, see action this afternoon at home versus Waynflete. The varsity starts the action at 1:30. In two outings last week, the stickers came up short, losing to North Yarmouth Academy last Wednesday and to Berlin last Saturday. Both squads saw action against Holderness yesterday, with results not available by press time.

Gould's women's soccer team was brought off its undefeated pedestal last Saturday, losing to White Mountain School, 2-1. Caro Sambrook got Gould's only tally. Last Wednesday the girl booters outlasted Berwick, winning 1-0 in overtime. The win was a big one for Coach Charlie Newell, since it was his 100th victory as a Gould coach.

Going into yesterday's game against Brewster, the women's soccer team had a record of 3-1-1.

The men's varsity and JV squads were in action yesterday against Hyde. Earlier in the week, on Monday, the varsity squad suffered a 5-2 defeat at the hands of Telstar. But last Wednesday they were winners against Mt. Abram, 3-0.

Also last Wednesday, the JV soccer team lost to Berwickfield's varsity, 2-1. The JVs beat Berwick.

In cross-country action, Gould won at Berwick Wednesday, with Eric Schneider taking second place and Jerry Croft coming in third. The team was again crossing field and stream yesterday, at Hyde.

mon, "but we just couldn't get it in."

Tuesday the Rebels lost to Sacopee, 3-0. "The real difference was breakaways," commented Coach Hammon. "Our goalie, Jeannine Conant, did a good job on the one-on-ones, but a couple got by her," the coach continued.

Telstar had 12 shots on goal, compared to 13 for Sacopee, and 10 corner shots to Sacopee's five. The goalies had seven saves each. Telstar's cross-country team saw action against Berlin on Tuesday. The course was new to both teams. The order of finish was as follows: Don Sloan (B), David Kersey (T), Steven Arsenault (B), Shane Blais (B), Steve Cote (B), Don Fortin (B), Chris Chapman (T), Vaughn (B), Jason Heuroux (B), Roland Sanchagnin (B), Keith Clanton (T), Brian Fogg (B), Keith Brown (B), Donald Barker (T), Jake Schachter (T), Meg Lamont (B), Kris Percival (T), Jim Fiske (T), Mike Barrett (B), Keith Jackson (B).

Berlin won the race with a score of 19. Don Sloan of Berlin, set a new course record of 19:15. Telstar's David Kersey came in second after running a good race. The team's next meet is this Friday, tomorrow, at home, against Mt. Abram.

GOULD GRABS IT

Gould Academy's Martin Grohman makes off with the ball as a Telstar opponent goes down during play Monday at Telstar. Gould's David Moreshead (34) follows the play. Telstar won the contest, 5-2, the school's second win this season over Gould. The win boosted the Rebels' record to 9-4-1, 7-4-1 in Div. C standings.

tax, smokers will go to New Hampshire in increasing numbers to do their shopping.

The 40 people in the audience gave each candidate a hearty round of applause following the political forum, which was in the lecture hall at Telstar R.H.S. Town Manager Bill Judson served as moderator.

(The re-drawn district is expected to produce about 2,000 votes on election day, Nov. 6. Most of those registered to vote in the district are enrolled Republicans, but in Bethel, registered voters are fairly evenly split among independents, Republicans and Democrats, according to Town Clerk Merion Brown, with the Democrats slightly in third place insofar as numbers are concerned.

MASTER POTTER'S EXHIBIT AT GOULD ACADEMY OCT. 19

An exhibition of contemporary ceramic by Japanese master potter Hajime Kozuru will open on Oct. 19 in the Owen Art Gallery, Gould Academy, in Bethel, with a reception at 9-10 p. m.

Mr. Kozuru's father and grandfather were potters in the Agano region of Kyushu where they had kilns dating back to the 15th century. While still in his thirties he became one of the most famous and sought-after potters in a country that prizes ceramics above all other arts. Kozuru left Japan in 1980 to settle in Topsfield, Mass., with his wife and three children.

The exhibition will be at the Owen Gallery from Oct. 19 until Nov. 7. Gallery hours: 9-3 weekdays, 2-4 weekends.

MISSIONARIES AT GOSPEL CENTER OCTOBER 10-14

A fall missionary conference will be held at the Bethel Gospel Center, Route 26, Bethel, on Oct. 10-14. Services will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7 o'clock and at 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. on Sunday.

Rev. Wils Tonnessen from Peenang, Malasia and Rose Marie Eramo from West Africa will be speaking and showing slides and curios of their respective fields. Both serve with the Christian and Missionary Alliance. The Alliance is an evangelical denomination with a strong missionary advance, represented in 51 countries around the world.

The public is cordially invited to attend these informative and challenging sessions.

AUTUMN BRILLIANCE

There was also a big business being done in newspapers. Both Edelweiss and Palm's early-on sold out their stocks of Sunday's Boston Globe, and on Monday, you couldn't find even a Lewiston paper in town after 12 noon. Even the IGA sold out its stock.

With so many tourists in the area, people were going to extremes, chasing after any hint of housing. The Skidway's Ms. Gray said phones were out at the mountain for much of the weekend, but the condo units all filled up nevertheless.

Out past West Bethel in Mason, "Mac" MacMunn of The King's Inn, said he filled up all his rooms early and had two bunks left in a bunk room that he's not yet finished renovating. "A Colorado couple came in and grabbed them," he said.

Travel trailer folks also had a time finding accommodations, despite the fact that they carry their accommodations right with them. George Stevens, of Littlefield Beaches Campground, reported his available spaces all filled.

On Sunday morning, Mr. MacMunn and his guests climbed Caribou Mountain on the Bog Trail to get a better view of Nature's artwork. "It was just like a tunnel of color," he said.

MICROWAVE OVEN WORKSHOP AT TELSTAR OCT. 16

Central Maine Power, Home Economist, Brenda Eddy will present a program on "Saving Energy with the Microwave Oven" to be held Tuesday, Oct. 16, from 7 to 9 p.m. The program will be held at Telstar R.H.S. and is open to the general public. Sponsored by the S.A.D. 44 Adult and Community Education program, the program will use the new microwave oven, which was cooperatively purchased by the Adult Ed. program and the Telstar Home Ec. Dept.

Andrew T. Smith and Kelly F. McGlothlin

McGLOTHLIN-SMITH ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. McGlothlin of Abilene, Tex., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kelly Frances, to Andrew T. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Smith of Fryeburg.

Miss McGlothlin graduated from Hackaday School for Girls, received a B.A. degree from Abilene Christian University, attended Pepperdine School of Law and is pursuing a master's degree in education at Abilene Christian University.

Mr. Smith, a graduate of Fryeburg Academy, is a senior geology major at Abilene Christian University.

The couple plan a Nov. 17 wedding.

FROM THE BETHEL AREA Health Center

The Bethel Area Center is sponsoring a nine-week Quit Smoking Clinic in Andover (with canoeing from Bethel), beginning on Oct. 19, 7 p.m. at the fire station. Won't you consider taking this step toward better health? Anyone interested in attending the course should call Elissa Thibodeau, 392-1181 (let it ring) or the Bethel Area Health Center, 824-2193.

The Health Center, together with the Cooperative Extension Service, is sponsoring a program for adolescents ages 8-12 and their parents called "To a Healthier Happier You." The purpose of the program is to help pre-teenage youngsters with a weight problem learn better eating habits. The program will be 12 weeks in length, and is scheduled to start Wednesday, Oct. 17, at the Bethel Fire Station, from 4 to 5:30 p.m. If interested in more information or to register, please call the health center, 824-2193.

AT BANGOR OCTOBER 26 GOULD GATHERING

On Friday, Oct. 26, alumni, parents and friends of Gould Academy will gather at the Pilot's Grill in Bangor for an evening of socializing and dinner. Area people who might be in the Bangor area on the 26th or who would like to go from this area are welcome. Details may be obtained by contacting the Alumni Office, Gould Academy, 824-2161, Ext. 129. This social occasion should be a good opportunity to meet with old friends and to talk with Headmaster Bill Clough and his wife Ki about the Gould Academy of 1984.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Elizabeth G. Wheeler who passed away Oct. 16, 1983. A lonely home, a vacant chair. Something is missing everywhere. Life must go on, we know it's true. But life's not the same since we lost you.

We shared happy times together. We shared some sad ones too. But the saddest day of all was the day that we lost you. Happy hours we once enjoyed. How sweet their memory fill. Death has left a loneliness. That words can never fill.

No length of time can dim the past. Too many memories hold it fast. Today, tomorrow, our whole life thru. We will always love and remember you.

Loved and sadly missed by: Stubby, Wendy, Bernie, Danny, Debra, William, Shelley and Mother, Celia.

THIS WEEK AT THE MOSES MASON HOUSE

The monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society was held Thursday evening, Oct. 4, in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House with the annual "What's It?" the feature of the program. An unusually large number of items were brought by those attending which included everything from a carpet tack driver to a plane for making tongue and groove flooring. This artifact section of the evening was followed by a photographic "What's It?" with photographs of several items being shown for identification by the audience. Society Director Stanley Howe also showed a slide of the Sudbury Inn when it was the home of Enoch Woodbury and followed it with one of that section of Main Street (probably from the 1870's) to show how the identity of the first photograph was determined. Following this a film "The Cooper's Craft" was shown which included the many tools used by a cooper in making a barrel, which may be called "what's its" today when found among a collection of tools.

During the business portion of the program, the next meeting was announced as scheduled for Nov. 1, with Margaret Joy Tibbets, the featured speaker, making a presentation on Bethel's memorable women. The artifact of the month was pointed out by President Alden Kenett as a wicker receiving basket from Greenleaf funeral home, the gift of Eldon Greenleaf. It dates from about 1900. The film series "The Adams Chronicles" was announced as being each Wednesday evening at 7:30 until Nov. 14. They are free and open to anyone interested.

The archaeology exhibit will be in the Moses Mason House meeting room from Oct. 6 through 20. Society Director Stanley Howe announced that to date over 300 orders for "East Bethel Road" had been received and that over 250 individuals and businesses had contributed about $5,000 toward the 1984 endowment campaign goal of $7,000. Refreshments of cider and donuts and a social hour followed the program.

TRI TOWN AMBULANCE

SPONSORING DANCE OCT. 13

Tri Town Ambulance Service is sponsoring a dance on Saturday, Oct. 13 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Locke Mills Legion Hall. Hot dogs and coffee will be served. Door prizes appropriate to Halloween will be given away. No one under 20 will be allowed. Identification will be checked. Come support the totally volunteer ambulance service and have a good time.

Congratulations to John Gray, who, we hear, was the 10,000th customer at the Fryeburg Fair. He got in free as a result. Sounds strange, though. He was there on opening day and yet was the 10,000 customer? Wonder if John's friend Les Otten had anything to do with that.

METHODIST WOMEN MET AT THE CHURCH OCT. 4

The United Methodist Women held their Oct. 4 meeting in the Church dining room. The hostesses for the afternoon were Edna York and Doris Fraser.

Barbara Mahler spoke on her trip to Israel. She told of the many interesting places she and her husband visited. They were welcomed by a friend after arriving there, and visited with them. She also explained some of the customs, houses and told about life in a Kibbutz.

Louise Loring, Corres.

Greetings to my former avid readers!! There have been a lot of changes in this little hamlet in the past six months, since I bid you all good-bye and laid down my pen.

There have been 6 births in the community, all girls: Bethany, to Mr. and Mrs. Fernand Coriveau; Tanya, to Mr. and Mrs. John Coriveau; Amy, to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kothaus

Newry

— Miss Amy Hanscom, Corres. —
Eleanor Morton, Betsy Clank, June Swan, Olive Anderson and Louise Tetley were in Rumford, Bowdoin, Sept. 25. Eleanor Morton was high scorer, with Louise Tetley a close second.

Communion Services were held at the Newry Community Church Sunday in observance of the World Day of Prayer. The subject of Pastor Hanscom's message was "Bread and Wine", with Scripture reading from Hebrews 10:7-22 and words of assurance from Peter 1:18-25. Marsha Moxcey assisted with the service. Sylvia Wight had the children's service.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hunter, Tafton, Penn., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wight.

The Windy Valleys Snowmobile Club held a very successful lawn and bake sale at Newry Corner during the weekend. All proceeds went to the Oxford County Association for Retarded Children.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hunter called on Amy and Roger Hanscom Sunday afternoon.

Mary Tripp was in Rumford on business Thursday.

The Selectmen met Monday, Oct. 1, at the Raymond Foster School. Necessary road work was discussed. The State D.O.T. has agreed to do some shoulder work on the former State Aid Road at Sunday River, to be paid for by the Town.

North Paris

— Evoline B. Vatcher, Corres. —

Fryeburg fair is a thing of the past for 1984. The rain on Tuesday which was hard at times caused the Senior Citizens day to be postponed until Wednesday and then it rained after 2 o'clock. The wind for Thursday, Friday and Saturday discouraged a lot of people but Sunday was beautiful. All roads went to Fryeburg all the week.

No community club meeting on Wednesday due to several having colds and some at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reidy and a friend, Tyngsboro, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Spencer and two children of Lowell, Mass., spent the week end at their trailer and attended the fair. They returned to their homes on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott called on the Vatcher's to report on their trip to Nova Scotia, New

Rotary Club News

The Bethel Rotary Club met at the Sudbury Inn for its regular luncheon meeting on Oct. 9. Because of extenuating circumstances such as vacation time, and the Fryeburg Fair, this reporter has been unable to make the news deadline the past couple of weeks. In the interim, Rotarian Bill Conary has been appointed by the Board of directors, with Bill's acceptance, to be a Paul Harris Fellow. This high award benefits Rotary International's international service goals, and it is a solid show of support for the goals of Rotary on the part of the member. At the last board of directors meeting, with club membership approval, an amount of money was donated to the District Governor for the digging of wells in the Dominican Republic. The problem of a lack of water is a very serious one in that area. At this meeting a change in the President Elect (1985-86) was approved. Dr. Lennie Shaw will be President Elect for the term followed by Bryce Yates. The Little League dugout project sponsored by the club has been completed at the Crescent Park School area. Roger Conant and his many helpers did a great job. The program chairman for the meeting this date was Bob Saunders. His guest speaker was Dick Wagner, CMP Dir. of Industrial & Commercial Development. He gave a very informative talk about the current position of the company and the expanding goals of CMP in the state of Maine. A question and answer session continued after the meeting.

Visiting Rotarians and guests joining with the club were: Al Stausbach, Gil Robinson, Wilming-ton, Del.; Chas. Feld, Marco Island, Fla.; Al Geronda, Rumford; Bill Raymond, guest of John Head; L. Wieden, guest of Dave Preble; Cathy Myers and Doug Wagner, guest of Bob Saunders.

The program chairman for next week is Bill Conary. The program will consist of a classification talk by John Elliot.

Tickets were distributed for the Fall Follies Frolic Dance to be held at the Locke Mills Legion Hall on Oct. 20, 8:30-12:30 a.m. A heavy Rotary attendance, and participation of local dance fans is expected. The band is "Coming On Country," and they are terrific! Hope to see you all there!

The Town will do some work on the Roderick road. Western Maine Supply Co., Bethel, was the low bidder on materials for the new roof on the Foster School. James Sysko will do the work and expects to start in mid-October. Letters will be sent all septic tank pumpers in the area, notifying them that only septage from Newry and Hanover and Bethel on an emergency basis, will be accepted at the Newry site. Any pumper violating this rule will not be allowed to use the site.

Mary Tripp, tax collector reported approximately $60,000, or 45% of the 1984 tax commitment had been collected and deposited before Sept. 30. Interest at the rate of 1.25% per month, or part thereof, beginning Oct. 1, will be charged on all taxes not paid before that date.

Esther Crocker, Mechanic Falls, visited Louise Learned Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Windy Valleys Snowmobile Club will meet Oct. 18, at 6:30 p.m., at the Club House. There will be a 6:30 pot luck supper, followed by a special program.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wight, Jennifer and Jason, Old Town, recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wight.

The Town of Newry has been selected to receive the Excellence Award in their population category in the Maine Municipal Association 1984 Annual Report Competition.

Brunswick, Canada, and Calais in Maine. In New Brunswick the streets were roped off and shortly Queen Elizabeth II came by. The Abbotts attended the Knights of Pythias convention in Calais on Friday and Saturday, returning home on Sunday.

Leon Pollard was working in town with his backhoe one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunton, Bedford, Mass., spent the week end with their daughter and son-in-law Susan and David Lyons and attended the fair. This week David will have the cast removed from his leg and he will be happy.

All roads will lead to West Sumner Saturday, Oct. 13, for bean hole beans and the entertainment and dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher went to Danvers, Mass., Sunday to bring Joe's mother to visit three days. Very little traffic at 8 a.m. but at 2 p.m. it was bumper to bumper for a mile and took almost an hour. Topsfield was having a fair and many, many people and cars went and they had to buy a ticket before parking so everyone had to wait. It was a beautiful day so we didn't mind the delay.

Callers at Lawrences: Joe Kalinski, Stanley Ukelele, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher, Rhoda Vatcher, Arnold Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Herman, Card, Clyde Knights, Velma Packard.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson Sr., Burlington, Mass., came Tuesday for the fair and spent the night with the Vatchers, picked apples Wednesday and went to Fryeburg and it rained again.

Albany HUNT'S CORNER AND VICINITY

— Kathy Bennett, Corres. —

It is a rather dreary, drizzly day but we do need the rain badly.

Recent callers at the Barton Farm have been Jan Jacobs and Margaret Jacobs of East Machias; Kathy and Stewart Jacobs, Old Town; Karen and Andy Jacobs and Judy Jacobs, Orono, and Willard Look, East Machias.

Wednesday Margaret Barton and her sisters-in-law, Tress Parsons and Yvette Barton went to Lewiston shopping. Yvette's mother, Elsie Bouchard went also. Dick and I visited Friday night and watched the baseball game.

Jean Reynolds and Jane Wardwell took their parents, Arthur and Alice Wardwell, out to supper for their anniversary one night last week.

Sunday supper guests of Barb and Howard Inman were Andy Inman and Jason and Bob and Millie Pope.

Recent visitors at the home of Hugh and Edith Stearns have been June and Brian Inman, Kathy Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waterhouse, and Terri and Doreth Howard.

Elna Hale, Russ Hale and Kevin, had dinner with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McAllister on Friday. Rodney and Lelia McAllister called on them Sunday. Albert is busy cutting wood and yarding it out with his steers.

Sarah Andrews attended Fryeburg Fair last week. Tuesday Sarah went to Norway on business. Sunday Wayne and Lorraine Andrews and daughter, Kelly, had dinner with Sarah.

Things are rolling along at K.D.'s Acres. The wood shed is filling up and so are the shelves in the root cellar. These seem to end to the flow of vegetables!

Friday, Margaret Barton and I went to Norway shopping and had lunch. Saturday, Doug and I and Margaret spent the day at Fryeburg Fair. Dan Bennett plays in the Telstar marching band. Dave Bennett spent a couple of days visiting.

FROM THE WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Society has long held a fascination for mankind. In some ways it is unfairly overrated. It can be an excuse for snubbing people. Very often so-called "society" is not even interested in talented, or conscientious people but only the very rich. Then there are those who rely too closely on the rules of etiquette. Rather than making life more gracious, they can become a strait-jacket if too strictly applied. But man must congregate. Perhaps the best advice is to simply find congenial, intelligent company and enjoy oneself. The true aristocrat has always carried himself gracefully and easily without snobbishness. Often he is the least pretentious person imaginable. So keep those strictures in mind and enjoy yourself. Society should serve you, not the other way around. Man will always be a social creature, but there are still more important things in life than keeping up with the Joneses.

This week's Society meeting will be at the Elementary School and will feature a program on the Garden Club by Past President Annie Crockett.

iding his friend Scott Dyer. Flo Cairns and I called on my family at Hillcrest Farm in Bryant Pond Sunday evening.

Sunday, Dick and I and the boys were extremely pleased with a visit from our friend, Doug Thibault and children, Myra and Myja, and Myja's friend, Dean, from Narragansett, R. I.

Callers during the week have been Jeff Barton, Bob and Millie Pope, Margaret Barton, and Lorrie and Steve Hodgdon and daughter.

— Olive Davis, Corres. —

After three days of preparing us for rain it arrived Monday night and Tuesday in a torrential downpour most of the time. This will make the people happy who have dry wells and may it fill them well again.

Esther Davis and Patricia Tibbets took Olive Davis to the Sunday River Skiway Lodge to the recent craft display. Kristine Micelson sang with the Country Ridge Riders who furnished music from 12 to 3 o'clock. Mr. More is the leader of the band. There were a lot sitting around enjoying the music. They had had a chicken barbecue and some were still eating when we arrived.

Carl, Lettie, Olive, Kay Billings, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Felt and Florence Gustafson attended Franklin Grange Monday night. Olive Davis showed colored folks pictures for the program.

Perry Ryerson has been in town and harvested his garden. It's that time again.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Flint called on me Friday. I was real glad to see him as I hadn't seen him since we worked. Lili and I, for his mother at their boarding house in the teens. Lee was their little son then.

Saturday I went to Bridgton as it was Lillian Harmon's birthday. She had birthday for the whole week with a lot of cards from all her friends coming through the week.

Mrs. Bessie M. Reynolds, formerly of Newry, died Sept. 30, 1984, at the home of her son, Roger Reynolds in Sonoma, Calif.

Born on May 13, 1892, she was the daughter of James and Marion Spinnery. She was married to James Reynolds and during their early years together they operated a milk and fox farm at Sunday River. Mrs. Reynolds was also an antique dealer at Sunday River and later in California where she had made her home for the past 24 years. Mr. Reynolds died in 1951.

She is survived by two sons, Roger of Sonoma and Rieley of Concord, Calif.; six grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren. Two sons preceded her in death. Ramsey died in 1952 and Royal died in 1982.

Private funeral services were held in California with interment in Sunday River Cemetery in Newry.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend a memorial service at the Newry Community Church on Sunday, Oct. 14, at 2 p.m. Donations in her memory may be made to the Newry Community Church, c/o Olive Anderson, Treasurer, Branch Road, Newry, Maine 04261.

McGUIRE IS COMMENDED STUDENT AT T. R. H. S.

Mike McGuire, a senior at Telstar Regional High School, has been named a Commended Student in the 1985 Merit Scholarship program.

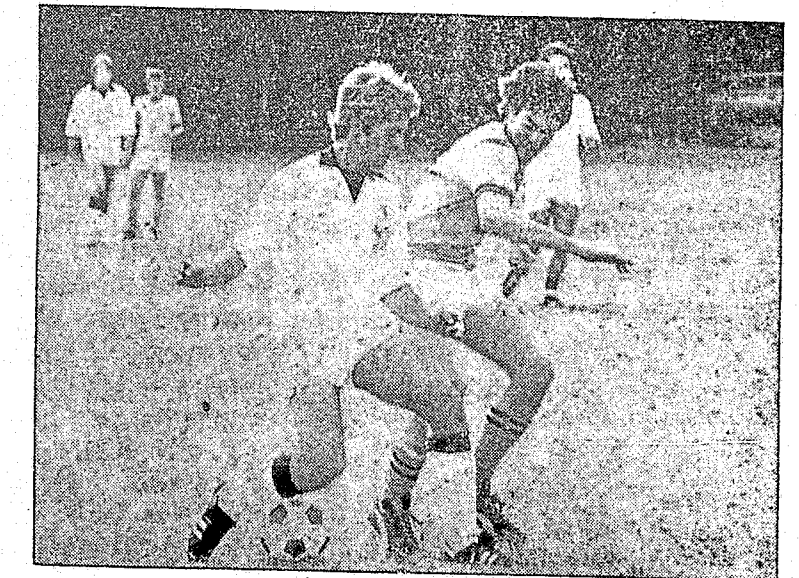

Telstar Principal Ted Davis said that McGuire placed in the top 5% among over 1 million participants in the 30 annual Merit Scholarship competition last year.

Some 35,000 Commended Students were selected in the competition. They scored slightly lower than the 5,500 students selected to receive Merit Scholarships.

McGuire did, however, receive

ALL SMILES — Telstar senior Mike McGuire is all smiles as he receives a Merit Scholarship certificate from Principal Ted Davis. The certificate named Mike as one of the "commended students" on the basis of his performance in last year's testing of juniors nationwide.

A Letter of Commendation from the Merit Program. Mr. Davis presented the letter to him last week. The student is the son of H. Paul McGuire of Winter Street, and Jean McGuire of Chapman Street. He says he hopes to attend college upon graduation from Telstar. He expects to major in Liberal Arts.

PARENTS' NIGHT, EBS & CPS TUESDAY NIGHT OCT. 16

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 16, Ethel Bisbee and Crescent Park schools will be hosting a "Come Back to School" Open House to help bridge the gap between current students' and their parents' school days. An enjoyable informal gathering and introduction is planned by each classroom teacher. Because some students actually have two or more teachers, parents of these children are reminded to visit each teacher: Open House hours are: EBS 6:30 - 7:30 and CPS 7:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Thursday, Oct. 4 was the day Invitation Contest winners were chosen. Leroy Leonard, a 1st grader, had his chosen to become the official Open House invitation from EBS. A combined effort by Kristen Landry, Jessica Reynolds and Steven Cramton (2nd graders) won the privilege of becoming the official invitation from CPS. A "reminder" will be sent home the day of the Open House. This was designed by Jody Barnes, a 1st grader.

Please plan to come to Open House and meet your child's teacher. Bring your children—they will love to show you where they sit and some of their special work they have been doing.

An Open Letter from REPRESENTATIVE JEFF MILLS
to the Voters of District 49

Dear Friends:

It has been nearly a year since you elected me as your representative. During that time I have worked hard to honor my pledge made to you—to be a full-time representative for our area. I have attended meetings throughout the district, sought your opinions in person and through a constituent survey, and tried to keep you informed through newspaper articles and newsletters.

Working for your special interests, I have been active in the effort to keep low level nuclear waste out of our area, and have succeeded in returning over $100,000 in state funds to Maine towns. I have worked to achieve a fair solution to the funding of the Fish and Game Dept. and was present for 99% of recorded votes.

In seeking re-election I would renew my pledge to work hard to provide effective representation for you.

Sincerely,
JEFF MILLS
State Representative
